

SUMMER SOSTEN FEST &

GREAT PASTY

THROWDOWN

NOTE: Registration deadline is May 15th.

You can also register at www.sostenfest.com

Pasty Registration Form

Commercial Entry

Home Kitchen Entry

Team/Individual Name:

Address:

City:

State:

Postal Code:

Email:

Cooks:

“Traditional” pasties refer to the baked pastries with meat, potatoes and veggies that are common in Butte. However, many cultures and cooks offer different varieties of savory hand pies, which may be entered in the “Creative/Non-traditional” category.

Pasty Category (Select One). Please fill out separate form for each entry.

Traditional

Creative/Non-Traditional

Local Ingredients + Sources

--

All Other Ingredients

Will you be selling your pasties? (Commercial entries only)

Yes No

If YES, will you need a table to be provided?

Yes No

Please Note: If you are selling pasties, you are allowed a 6' x 8' space. If you need special accommodations, please reach out to the contacts listed below.

Rules of the Great Pasty Throwdown

1. A panel of judges will use the following criteria:
 - a. Appearance/Crust.
 - b. Guts.
 - c. Use of Local Ingredients.
 - d. "Creative" category only: Original, imaginative.
2. Bring three pasties to the competition.
 - a. Pasty judging begins at 2 p.m. and all entries must be delivered to the judging stand by 1:30 p.m.
3. Pasties must include at least one local or regionally grown ingredient. The more local ingredients used the better. NCAT's local food producers list, available at www.sostenfest.com, provides sourcing tips.
4. All entrants will be contacted by the Butte-Silver Bow Environmental Health Department for food safety guidance.
5. Commercial entrants using an inspected kitchen may sell pasties at the event, in addition to bringing three for the judges.
6. Home Kitchen entrants will not be able to sell their pasties.
7. The crust must hold all ingredients through cooking and handling without cracking or breaking.
8. Awards will be given for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winners in each category.

For assistance or further questions, please contact Heather Lingle at (406) 494-4572, heatherl@ncat.org or Melissa Englund at (406) 533-6645, melissae@ncat.org.